

Giving every student in every department of every campus in Mexico an opportunity to be part of a Missional Christ-centered spiritual movement

How to Launch a Spiritual Movement in a Day – U.S.

1. Show up on a campus

- Take with you information on your campus as well as a back-up campus in case one is closed, striking, or dangerous.
- Insights: drop your identification with gate keeper if there is a guard. You can say I'm meeting here for lunch.

2. What to do when you're on campus.

- Goal: looking for a "Key" movement leader, not just interested Christians
- Pray for divine leader appointments (Luke 10-Person of Peace)
- Decode quickly: where are the relational, religious, academic hotspots, number of students, religious, private/public, living situations, clubs, leadership, etc.
- Ask many students, "Who is the most interested spiritual Christian leader on campus?"
- Do you know them personally?
- Can we meet them today, right now? Get their contact info.
- Go after another "Key" Leader.
- Pray for a leader for each of the faculties. We're trusting God for a student initiated, led, and developed movement in each faculty.

3. What to do when you meet with the "Key" Movement Leader.

- Share the Enfoque México brochure. Provided at your briefing.
- Often you'll be sharing the Gospel too. Provided at your briefing
- Give clear steps on how to lead a movement (found on brochure)
 - a) Pray for your university
 - b) Invite, gather and organize a group of students to bring Jesus to your whole faculty and campus – share your faith, pray for the lost, train up new leaders.
 - c) Believe God to transform your university – Spiritual movements that pray, share the gospel.
 - d) Visit the website for more resources on how to lead and plant movements.

4. How to leave this movement leader?

- The ownership: The spiritual movement, strategies and growth is theirs to lead.
- Bless them, pray for them, lay hands on them and give them complete leadership – validate them
- Leave responsibility on their shoulders to reach the campus for Jesus.
- Leave them the initial resource packet to start their movement.
- Get their contact info: email, name, cell, home.....

Keep in mind as you are traveling via taxis, metro and bus, eating, and just being in the city you may come across churches, pastors, missionaries, mission organizations, leaders, businessmen who all may be chosen by God to help Enfoque Mexico reach each and every student in Mexico. Keep your eyes and ears open to what God could do. We will need to be responsive to the many divine appointments God has in store for us. Be prepared for something supernatural.
